

Laura Franklin

thelaurafranklin@gmail.com
http://www.thelaurafranklin.com

Objective

Seeking a full time position in digital media

Education

Washington State University Vancouver: Bachelors of Arts in Digital Technology and Culture,
Vancouver, Washington; Graduated May 2009
Concentration in Multimedia Authoring

Awards

Undergraduate Research Award for "VJ Fleet," an interactive, sensor-based multimedia event,
Washington State University Vancouver Research Showcase; April 2009

Qualifications

- Excellent written, verbal, and interpersonal skills
- Attention to detail
- Ability to multitask and problem solve
- Solid work ethic and strong team player
- Professional writing and editing
- Comfortable with both Macintosh and Windows operating systems
- Specialized courses in Interactive Media, Digital Animation, Multimedia Authoring, and Community Media

Technical Skills

- Adobe After Effects, Flash, Photoshop, and Premiere CS3
- Apple Final Cut Express
- XHTML and CSS
- Video production and editing

Professional Experience

- "At Home At School:" Web Intern for local children's organization; February to July 2009 <http://athomeatschool.org/>
- "VJ Fleet:" Member of team who developed an interactive, sensor-based multimedia event; Fall 2008 <http://www.vjfleet.org/>
- "The Letter:" Video produced and edited to provide visual interpretation of "Into the Wild" by Jon Krakauer; Spring 2008
<http://www.thelaurafranklin.com/multimedia/>
- "Mad Bug:" Animation created using Adobe After Effects; Spring 2008
<http://www.thelaurafranklin.com/multimedia/>

Work Experience (Prior to University)

Edmonds School District, Edmonds, Washington

October 1998 - January 2001

Educational Assistant for a high school video production program

- Demonstrated use of video equipment
- Problem solved equipment failure
- Handled computer-related problems